In appellate Courts, the cost of obtaining copies of the decree and judgment required by law to be filed with the memorandum of appeal will ordinarily be allowed, as also cost of unauthenticated copies of depositions in appeals involving questions of fact, and of such other exhibits or papers as may, in the opinion of the Court, be deemed material for the purpose of the appeal.

The Court, original or appellate, may, in its discretion, also allow the costs of any other copies which, in its opinion, were material for a party to obtain for the purposes of his suit.
